Good morning everyone!

One of the best ways we can strengthen communication, build solidarity, and celebrate the incredible work happening across our Local is by growing our social media presence.

If you haven't already, please consider sharing the links to our Instagram and Facebook pages with your colleagues who may not be following us yet! The more members we can connect with, the easier it is to share timely updates, celebrate member actions, highlight our Red4Ed campaign, and continue building momentum as we mobilize together to defend public education.

As a reminder, we have two exciting draws for iPads coming up soon, simply for following us. So, encourage your colleagues to follow along to stay connected.

Thank you so much for helping us expand our reach and to keep each other connected, informed, and engaged!
